STAFF MEMBER WELCOMES SECOND SON

Mr. & Mrs. Clyde Fulk were blessed with a second son, Jeffrey Merrill, who arrived at Forsyth Memorial Hospital on Friday morning, Jan. 7, 1972. Best wishes on your new arrival.

HOUNDS LOSE TO CONFERENCE LEADER

HOUNDS DEFEAT BEARS

The North Surry Greyhounds hosted the Madison-Mayodan Falcons, Friday Jan. 7, and lost a hard fought battle, 60-65.

During the first half the Falcons pulled off to an early lead but the Hounds didn't give up, as they battled hard.

North Surry's Greyhounds led all the way in the game played on the Y's court January 11, and soundly trounced their closest rival, the Mount Airy Bears 80-60.

Payne high-scored with 24 points, followed was Tesh with 18; Penn, 11; Young, 10; and Badgett, 7.

During the second half the scores didn't change much, but it was evident that the Hounds were trying desperately to obtain the lead. Bernie Young scored 20 points but found his efforts in vain as the Hounds came out on the bottom.

In the night's opening game, the Greyhound Pups also won easily, 81-49.

Others scoring were Payne, 15; Tesh, 11 Penn, 9; and Badgett 5.

CEASE...DESIST...SHUT UP!

The Junior-Varsity took the honors for the evening as they slipped by M.M. 49-48, in an exciting contest.

"When in the company of sensible men," said Colton, "we ought to be doubly cautious of talking too much, lest we lose two good things--their good opinion and our own improvement."

James Dalton and Leon Shuff were high scorers as they hit for 13 and 12 points respectively.

Silly put-if you're talking, you ain't listening, you ain't learning.

Additionally, he who never listens when his friends and associates speak, must lose both.

GINGER HAYNES NAMED KEY CLUB SWEETHEART

During an impressive ceremony held last Friday night during half-time of the Varsity game, Ginger Haynes, jr., was named Key Club Sweetheart. Mr. Cameron served as master of ceremonies. All nominees for the honor were introduced as they and their escorts walked onto the court. The nominees and their sponsors are as follows: Sharon Brintle, sponsored by Gerald Collins; Sabrina Davis sponsored by Ricky East; Lynn Enzor, sponsored by Warren Hiatt; Anita Goins, sponsored by Gary Lawrence; Susan Lawson, sponsored by Mike McKinney; Paula Lowe, sponsored by Ricky Cornett; Pam Stamper sponsored by, Gary Hiatt; Terri Wilmoth, sponsored by Gary Harold; and the winner, Ginger Haynes, sponsored by Mike Handy.

BARK STAFF DISAPPOINTED IN SURVEY PARTICIPATION

Because of a definite lack of interest by the students in the survey questions from the December 20 issue of the Bark, this survey has been canceled. The number of answers turned in was too small to evaluate.

The Bark hopes that students will take an interest in future surveys.

FIVE PICKED FOR I.Q. BOWL COMPETITION

Five seniors here have been selected as North Surry's team for competition in a quiz game to be shown on Channel 2, WFMY-TV, Greensboro. They are Mary Jane Brown, Linda McMillian, Delmar Chilton, and Jerry Collins; Shirley Draughn is serving as alternate.

The High I.Q. Bowl program is an annual second semester event sponsored by the Greensboro Youth Council. All high schools within the WFMY-TV viewing range are eligible. Competition begins February 19 and runs until May 20, when the final teams selected as the I.Q. Bowl finalists will be broadcast.

The rounds are two minutes long and consist of objective questions to which certain points have been assigned. (Competition will be similar to that of the G.E. College Bowl program of a few years back). Elimination rounds will be held until two are left to compete, from which comes a winner. (Grimsley High School of Greensboro was champion last year.)

The event will be held at UNC-G.
