Information for the Secretary

Study to show thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not be ashamed.

2nd Timothy 2:15

Remember your entries in this book will be the History of the Sunday School for the year; therefore the instructions given below should be carefully studied.

- First Entry Fill in (using ink) the blank lines on opposite page.
- Weekly Report The weekly report pages which follow should be fully and carefully maintained.
- While it may seem that too much space has been allowed for the teacher, yet the calling of the roll of the Teachers and Officers shortly after the opening of the school will have the decidedly good effect of getting them there on time. This record of attendance may easily be taken with the help of the Assistant Secretary.
- Only the Summary of Attendance and Offering should be read to the school at the proper time.
- Quarterly and Annual Report Note that there are thirteen Sundays to each Quarter, after which a Quarterly Report page is provided. Following the last Quarterly Report page will be found the Annual Report of Attendance and Offering.
- Disbursements Following the Annual Report page are two Expense pages to be used to record the order and purchase of all supplies, periodicals, etc. The name and street address of each publisher should be written at bottom of the first of these pages.
- Attendance of Officers and Teachers The Weekly Attendance of Officers and Teachers should be persistently and accurately maintained: the record of attendance may be started any month.
- Let X = on time, L = late, A = absent.
- Scholars' Record Pupils' personal record page needs no explanation; the careful Secretary, in the course of time, will find that this data will prove to be of incalculable value.
- How to Obtain Average To obtain the Weekly average of Attendance or Offering for a Quarter or Year, divide the sum total by the number of Sundays in the Quarter or Year.
- Star Class A star class is one that has every scholar present.
