THE ANNUAL STAFF

OF 1966

MARTIN MEMORIAL

SCHOOL OF NURSING

PRESENTS

"THE TWO FACES OF MISS M.M.S.N."

This year we would like to recognize one who has gone so far beyond the basic duties of his work to be of greatest assistance not only in the professional field, but also in the social functions of our school. We will always be grateful for the vital interest he has shown and for the time he has devoted to our well being.

It is with pride and admiration that we, the Annual Staff of Martin Memorial School of Nursing, dedicate the 1966 edition of THE STRIPES to Dr. Lewis B. Bolin.

LINDA SETTLE

THE LIFE OF A NURSE

The world grows better year by year
Because some nurse in her little sphere
Puts on her apron and cap and sings
And keeps on doing the same old things,
Taking the temperature, giving pills,
To remedy mankind's numberless ills.

Feeding the babies, answering bells
And being polite with a heart that rebels,
Longing for home and all the while
Wearing the same old professional smile,
Blessing the new-born babe's first breath
Closing the eyes that are stilled in death.

Taking the blame for the doctor's mistake
Oh dear, what a lot of patience it takes,
Going off duty at seven o'clock
Tired, discouraged, just ready to drop,
But called back on special at seven fifteen
With woe in the heart, but it must not be seen.

Morning or evening, noon or night,
Just doing it over and hoping it's right,
When we lay down our caps and cross the bar,
O, Lord, will you give us just one little star?
To wear in our crowns with our uniforms new,
In the city above where the head nurse is YOU.

THE LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We the Senior Class of Martin Memorial School of Nursing, who after three LONG years of hard work do hereby bequeath our last Will and Testament to all the followers of this long, well sought-after journey.

To Mr. Lockhart, Miss Hardwicke, Instructors, and the Staff, we do hereby leave our gratitude and our appreciation for many hours of unreplaceable help and guidance.

We the Senior Class of 1966 leave to the rising seniors these suggestions to help develop their capacities to the greatest extent.

I, Loretta Stanley, leave my quality of quietness to Carol Thomas.

I, Dorothy Peterson, leave my seat in front of the T.V. to Pat Hansen.

Elaine Shuler leaves her gavel to Shirley Bryant in hopes that it won't be pounded so much.

Reba Hamm leaves her Ergotamine Tartrate to anyone who finds it necessary.

I, Maxine Sanders, will to Kathleen Pyles my ability to drag myself away from household duties and come to all the necessary meetings.

To Wanda Craven, I Linda Cash, bequeath my swift step.

I, Gale Watson, leave my exercise book to all those who want to lose weight.

I, Margaret Cox, leave my neatness to Judy Zirkel and Carole Goodlett.

I, Bonnie Young, leave my ability to cook to Bobbie Hampton.

Carolyn Dockery leaves her book, "One Thousand and One Ways to Wear Your Hair" plus an old ragged yellow ribbon for a pony tail to Anne Christian and Susan Robertson.

To the rising senior class, we place in their hands our black bands--most treasured and dear; our two affiliations, and senior privileges and hope they, too, reach the goal for which they strive.
